

Lake of the Isles Lutheran Church

✠ Ascension Sunday ✠

May 21, 2017

In today's gospel the risen Christ ascends in heaven and his followers are assured that the Spirit will empower them to be witnesses through the earth. The disciples were told to not gaze up into heaven to look for Jesus; we find his presence among us as we proclaim the word and share the Easter feast. We too long for the Spirit to enliven our faith and invigorate our mission.

*Inspired by Christ,
living and growing in faith,
we are a loving and open community of worship, witness, and service in God's world.*

Reading

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

R: The Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Fugue for Four Trumpets

Michel Rondeau

Gospel

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the twenty fourth chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.” Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.

P: The Gospel of our Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Anthem

Te Deum, k. 141 Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

*O God, we extol thee, O Lord God we sing thy praises.
All the earth doth worship thee: the Father everlasting.
Angels cry aloud to thee: all the Heavens and universal powers praise thee.
All the Cherubin and Seraphin with unceasing voice do proclaim thee:
Holy, Holy, Holy: Lord God of Sabaoth;
Earth and heavens are filled with the glory, with the Majesty of thy glory.*

*The glorious chorus of Apostles and all the Prophets do praise thee for evermore.
Lord, to thee do the Martyrs lift their voices for evermore.
And the Church doth acknowledge thee, through all the world.
Father of majesty unbounded; And thy own, thy only Son is deserving of all our praise; Holy Spirit, the Spirit most comforting.*

*Thou, O Christ, King of glory, the everlasting Son of the Father,
Thou didst take our nature that thou might deliver us,
And though immortal, wast born of mortal womb.
When the pangs of death thou hadst overcome,
Then thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
Thou dost sit in the Father's glory dost sit at his right hand.
We believe that thou shalt come to be our judge.
We therefore beg of thee, help thy servants: Lord, comfort them, thy servants thou hast redeemed, with thine own blood.*

*With all thy saints, let us be numbered. Keep us in thy heavenly glory.
Save all thy people, Lord. Save them, and bless thine heritage forever.
Help them and rule them. Lift them up forever.
Each day we extol thee and praise thee. And we praise thy name forever, ever more.
In thy great goodness, Lord, help us. Keep us sinless throughout all this day.
Lord, have mercy on us. Lord, show thy mercy unto us. We trust in thee, O Lord.
All my hope, O Lord is in thee, so let me never be confounded.*

Sermon

Following the sermon, we will take a moment of silence to reflect on today's gospel message.
