Commemoration of St. Luke the Evangelist

✠ Healing and Prayer Service ✠

October 21, 2018

St. Luke is traditionally identified as the author of both the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles. Many scholars believe that Luke was a physician who lived in the Greek city of Antioch in Ancient Syria. His feast day is commemorated on October 18th.

*Inspired by Christ, living and growing in faith,
we are a loving and open community of worship, witness, and service in God's world.*

Psalm 96

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth.

Sing to the LORD, bless the name of the LORD; proclaim God's salvation from day to day.

Declare God's glory among the nations and God's wonders among all peoples.

For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised, more to be feared than all gods.

Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; tremble before the LORD, all the earth.

Tell it out among the nations:

"The LORD is king! The one who made the world so firm that it cannot be moved will judge the peoples with equity."

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea thunder and all that is in it; let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy at your coming, O LORD, for you come to judge the earth.

You will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with your truth.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit

As it was in the beginning is now and will be forever. Amen

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the seventeenth chapter.
C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel

¹¹On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, ¹³they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" ¹⁴When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. ¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. ¹⁶He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they?" ¹⁸Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Distribution

Communion is by common cup or intinction: For the common cup, receive a piece of the bread, and drink from the white chalice. For intinction dip the bread into the brown cup with the wine (dark) or grape juice (light) as you prefer, then eat. At Lake of the Isles, we practice open communion. All who hunger for the presence of Christ in their life are welcome at this table.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY NOVEMBER 4TH

All Saints Sunday, November 4th, is a special time in the life of the church to remember all those who have become a part of the "church triumphant" as "saints in light." This year, the church choir together with a chamber ensemble will perform Faure's requiem. It is a wonderful piece of comfort and consolation.

All Saints Sunday is also an occasion when friends and members of the Lake of the Isles are invited to honor and memorialize "the saints in light" with a gift to the Endowment Fund. This year, those whose names are memorialized will be included on the Sunday morning worship bulletin and with a flower in a special floral arrangement.

Blessed be the saints among us and the blessed saints who have gone before us.
