

God's House, Your Room

Jesus says he's going to heaven ahead of us to get our rooms ready. What do you think your room in heaven will look like? Draw it here!

Foldable Building

God wants you to live in his house forever. Decorate the front of your house however you'd like. Cut out the shape on the solid lines. Then fold the pieces on the dotted lines and tape the whole thing together!

Cardstock Carpentry

God says he will have your room ready in heaven. What would your room in heaven look like? Make a model! Color the diorama below. Then cut out the pattern, fold up the sides, and glue them together to see your room.
