

LAKE OF THE ISLES LUTHERAN CHURCH

✠ The Sunday of the Passion ✠

Palm Sunday, April 10, 2022

The voice of the suffering savior, Jesus, can be heard in the prophet Isaiah's words and the pleading of the psalm. We are invited into the agony of our Lord in the extended reading of the story of Jesus' passion. In the second reading, we who have put on Christ in holy baptism are urged to let the mind of Christ be our own. Lent leads us to this holy moment. Embrace it.

✠ Gathering ✠

Following the call of God's Spirit, the community of faith gathers, welcoming one another and praying for God's mercy to fill the church and the world.

We invite you to use the prelude time to prepare your heart and mind for worship.

Prelude

La Bourée, from Terpsichore

Michael Praetorius (1571-1621)

Welcome

Acclamation
& Prayer

P: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

C: Hosanna to the Son of David.

Processional Gospel
Luke 19:28-40

After he had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. When he had come near Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it.'" So those who were sent departed and found it as he had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?" They said, "The Lord needs it."

Then they brought it to Jesus; and after throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. As he rode along, people kept spreading their cloaks on the road. As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!"

Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!" Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, order your disciples to stop." He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out."

Blessing of the Palms

Processional Hymn

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: We praise and thank you, O God, for the great acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was acclaimed Son of David and King of Kings by those who scattered their garments and branches of palm in his path.

We ask that you bless these branches and those who bear them, and grant that we may ever hail him as our Lord and King and follow him with perfect confidence; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Let us go forth in peace.

C: In the name of the Lord.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you sent your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to take our flesh upon him and to suffer death on the cross. Grant that we may share in his obedience to your will and in the glorious victory of his resurrection; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

✠ Word ✠

The Word of God comes alive for the gathered community as God speaks to us in scriptures read, sung and preached.

Lesson Roman 8:35-39 Please be seated

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

R: Word of God, Word of Life.

C: Thanks be to God.

✠ THE PASSION OF OUR LORD ACCORDING TO SAINT LUKE ✠

Naught Shall Separate Us BuxWV 77

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637 - 1707)

The Preparation & the Eating of the Last Supper

Narrator

Now, the feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called the Passover. And the Temple priests were seeking how to put Jesus to death; for they feared the people.

I

Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was of the number of the twelve; he went away and conferred with the temple priests and officers how he might betray Jesus to them. And they were glad, and engaged to give him money. So Judas agreed, and sought an opportunity to betray Jesus to them in the absence of the multitude.

Narrator

Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. So Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat it."

People

"But where, Lord? Where will you have us prepare it, and what are we to do?"

Narrator

He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him into the house which he enters, and tell the householder, 'The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I am to eat the Passover with my disciples?' And he will show you a large upper room furnished; there make ready." And they went and found it as he had told them and they prepared the Passover. And when the hour came, Jesus sat at the table, and the apostles with him. And he said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I tell you, I shall not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks he said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves; for I tell you that from now on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." And he took the bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." And likewise the cup after supper, saying, "This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. But behold the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. For the Son of Man goes as it has been determined: but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"

- People And they began to question, "Who, Lord? Who is to betray you? Is it I? Is it I?"
- Narrator He answered, "He who has dipped his hand in the dish with me will betray me. Oh, it would have been better for that man if he had not been born."
- I Judas, who betrayed him, said, "Is it I, Master?"
- Narrator Jesus said to him, "You have said so."
- II Simon Peter was indignant. "But not I!" he said. And he declared, "Though they all fall away from you, I will never leave you."
- Narrator "Peter, truly I say to you, this very night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."
- II Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will never deny you!"
- I "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks, Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."
- People And so said all of the disciples, over and over again.

The Agony in the Garden

Naught shall separate us from God's love in Jesus.

- Choir Naught shall separate us from God's love in Jesus.
- Narrator And he came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him. And when he came to the place he said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."
- People Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us, deliver us.
- Narrator And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, "Father, if thou art willing, remove this cup from me; nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done."
- People Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come: Thy will be done. Thy will be done. Thy will be done –
- Narrator And when he rose from prayer he came to the disciples and found them sleeping for sorrow, and he said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."
- People Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil even the evil within ourselves.
- I While he was still speaking, there came a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss him.
- Narrator But Jesus said to him, "Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"
- I Judas said, "Hail, Master."

People When the disciples saw what would follow, they said, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?”

II And one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

Narrator But Jesus said, “No more of this!” And he touched his ear and healed him.

People Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Narrator Jesus said to those who had come out against him, “When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour and the power of darkness.” Then they seized him –

The Judgment

*What name can be given to our earthly sorrow
That God, from his beloved Son would be sparing?
What hardship or trial that troubles the land
Could tear him away from God’s almighty hand?
No truly, not fear, persecution nor need.
Not hunger, nor nakedness, peril nor sword.
Naught shall separate us from God’s love in Jesus.*

Soloist & Choir

Narrator Then they seized Jesus and led him away, bringing him to the High Priest’s house.

II Peter followed at a distance; and when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.

People Then a maid, seeing him sit in the light, said, “This man also was with him.”

II But Peter denied it, saying, “Woman, I do not know him.”

People And a little later someone else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.”

II But Peter said, “Man, I am not.”

People An hour later someone insisted, saying, “Certainly this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean.”

II But Peter said, “Man, I do not know what you are saying!”

Narrator And immediately, while he was still speaking, the cock crowed. And the Lord turned and looked at Peter.

II And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him “Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times.” And he went out and he wept bitterly.

Narrator Now the men who were holding Jesus mocked him and beat him; they blindfolded him and demanded:

People “Prophecy!” Who is it that struck you?”

Narrator And they spoke many other words against him, reviling him. When the day came, the assembly of the elders of the people gathered together and led him to their council;

People And they said, “If you are the Christ, tell us.”

Narrator But he said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe; and if I ask you now, you will not answer. But from now on the Son of Man shall be seated at the right hand of the power of God –”

People And they said, “Are you the Son of God, then?”

Narrator And he said to them, “You say that I am.”

People And they said, “Blasphemy! What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips. Blasphemy! Oh, blasphemy!”

Dawn Friday: Jesus Before Pilate

Narrator Then the whole company of them arose, and brought Jesus before Pontius Pilate.

People And they began to curse him, saying, “We found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ the King!”

III And Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

Narrator And he answered him, “You have said so.”

III And Pilate said to the Chief Priests and the multitudes, “I find no crime in this man.”

People But they were urgent, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout Galilee even to this place.”

III And when Pilate heard that he was a Galilean, of Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod.

Narrator Where he was vehemently accused, and treated with contempt and mocked, and arrayed in gorgeous purple, and then sent back again.

III Pilate said to the rulers of the people, “You brought me this man as one who was perverting the people; and after examining him, behold, I did not find him guilty of any of the charges against him. Behold, nothing deserving death has been done by him. I will therefore chastise him and release him –

People But they all cried out together, “Away with this man! Away! Away! Release to us Barabbas –”

Narrator Barabbas! -- a man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and for murder –

III Pilate addressed them once more, desiring to release Jesus –

People But they shouted out, “Crucify Him! Crucify Him!”

III Why? What evil has he done? I’ve found no crime in him deserving death. I’ll chastise him. I’ll release him –

People But they were urgent, demanding with loud cries that he should be crucified.

Narrator And their voices prevailed.

III So Pilate gave sentence that their demand should be granted. He released the man who had been jailed for murder. But Jesus he delivered up to their will.

Friday Morning: Crucifixion

*No power in creation, come early, nor lately,
Could God his own beloved Son separate him.
Not angels, nor princes, not fortress, nor tower,
Not kingdoms, nor life, not even death’s fearsome power.
No, nothing, whatever may yet come along,
Not heights, No, not depths. Will ever be strong.
Naught shall separate us from God’s love in Jesus.*

Soloist & Choir

Men

And as they led him away, they seized one Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it behind Jesus.

Women And there followed him a great multitude of women who bewailed and lamented him –

Narrator But Jesus, turning to them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breast that never gave suck!’ For if they do this when the wood is green, what will happen when it dries!”

Narrator Two others also, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. And when they came to the place which is called the Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left.

Narrator And Jesus said, “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.”

Women Forgive us our trespasses.

Men And they cast lots to divide his garments.

Women Forgive us our trespasses.

Men And the people stood by, watching. But the rulers scoffed at him, saying, “He saved others: Let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God!”

Women Forgive us our trespasses.

Men The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him vinegar.

Women There was an inscription over him: “This is the King of the Jews.”

Men Forgive us our trespasses. Forgive us, O Lord, our trespasses!

I One of the criminals who was hanged with him railed at him, saying, “Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!”

II

But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence, and we justly? But this man has done nothing wrong." And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

People

Forgive us our trespasses, deliver us from Evil. Thine is the kingdom –

Narrator

And Jesus said to him:

People

And the power –

Narrator

"Truly, truly, I say to you,"

People

And the glory –

Narrator

"Today you will be with me in Paradise."

People

Forever and ever. Amen!

Narrator

It was now about the sixth hour and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed ... And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from the top to the bottom ... Then Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit!" And having said this, he breathed his last. And all the multitudes who had assembled to see the sight ...

... when they saw what had taken place, they returned home, beating their breasts.

And all his acquaintances and the women who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance and saw these things –

Women

*So great is God's love above all of creation,
He gave his own blood for the sinner's salvation.
With his own begotten and well-beloved Son
He reigns from above on his heavenly throne.
Their works are in vain. Though, they try as they may.
God's mercy abides now,
God's love in Christ Jesus abides now and always.
Naught shall separate us from God's love in Jesus.*

Choir

Late Friday Afternoon: Burial

III

Now there was a man named Joseph from the town of Arimathea, a righteous man, one looking for the kingdom of God. This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then he took it down and wrapped it in a linen shroud, and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb, where no one had ever yet been laid.

Narrator

It was the day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was beginning.

Women

The women who had come with him from Galilee followed, and saw the tomb and how his body was laid. Then they returned, and prepared spices and ointments –

Narrator

On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

Prayers of the Church

*Please sing
Jesus, Remember me
in response to each petition.*

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross.
Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name that is above every name, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

P: Returning to the Lord with all our heart, let us pray for the whole people of God, the earth, and all who cry out for healing.

A brief silence

P: Form in the church the mind of Christ, that we may empty ourselves...

The Palms

Jean-Baptist Faure (1830–1914)

*O, let the palms wave on this happy day!
Greetings they bear to us of joy and gladness.
Jesus is come to take all grief away,
He comes to banish gloom and sadness.
Join all and sing His name declare,
Let ev'ry voice resound with acclamation,
Hosanna! Praised be the Lord!
Glory to Him, who come bringing salvation!
His gentle voice pervades the mighty throng.
'Tis He who freedom gives o'er land and sea; '
'Tis He who gives in darkest night a song,
Give light, O Lord, that we may come to Thee!
Sing and rejoice, O blest Jerusalem,
Your children now sing the Redeemer's name;
For by His grace the God of Bethlehem
Brings them new faith and hope confirms the same.*

Meditation

LOTI is available during office hours for a time of quiet meditation. You can use the sanctuary to spend time in prayer, light a candle, listen to recorded sacred music, and/or use a guided meditation tool. Please call the church office to reserve a time.

Nursery in the Christy Room

Welcome to our youngest friends in the congregation! We know that you sometimes need another space to be in during worship to get your wiggles and giggles out. Our Nursery is staffed and available for your little one to use. Ushers can help you with directions or simply follow the signs provided in the back of the Sanctuary.

Visiting Sunday School Age Children

Children age 3 through 6th Grade are welcome to visit Sunday School. We do ask that you are able to adhere to our safety guidelines currently in place (masks, physical distancing etc) and that a parent/guardian accompany your child to Sunday School so that we can explain guidelines etc.

Loved Ones In The Military

Please keep all the members & families of the military in your prayers of thanksgiving and protection.

Our Saviour's Housing Meals

For many years, Lake of the Isles Lutheran Church has provided a meal for 40 on the first Friday of every month. Due to COVID-19, our monthly meals are provided by donation. The shelter orders and serves the meal. The cost to provide the meal is $250.

Kid Worship Materials

Kid worship materials are available in the Narthex (back of Sanctuary). Crayon packets and a variety of coloring pages and activity sheets are available for your children to enjoy during worship.

Pancake Breakfast Today

After today's service we are serving pancake breakfast in Fellowship Hall, including sausage, juice, milk & coffee. Suggested donation is $5 for adults or $15 per family. An Easter Egg Hunt at the parsonage will be held during the pancake breakfast.

Thrivent Financial is sponsoring the meal.

Maundy Thursday

On Thursday, April 14th at 11:30 AM, there will be a brief service of Confession and Holy Communion to celebrate the day Christ instituted his holy supper. And at 6:00 PM, our First Communion class will be holding a Seder to mark Maundy Thursday. The congregation and friends are invited to participate in this special Middle Eastern meal as well. Please help us prepare for this meal by contacting the church office.

Good Friday

April 15th commemorates Jesus' death on the cross. The 7:00 PM evening worship service lead by the choir & guest soloist William Maus, (former student of Dawn Allan) will mark in readings and music Jesus' journey to the cross and his burial in the tomb. This service will be in-person and live-streamed

The Easter Vigil

On Saturday, April 16th at 8:00 PM we celebrate the mystery of the resurrection and the promises given to those baptized into Christ's death. The worship service begins outside and moves into the darkened church where the stories of salvation are read. The service concludes by breaking the fast with champagne & hot cross buns.

Easter Services

Two worship services will be held on Easter Sunday, April 17th at 9:30 AM & 11:00 AM to celebrate Christ's resurrection from the dead. The choir and guest musicians will perform at both services. A Scandinavian Easter Brunch will be served at 12:00 NOON. Reservations are available through the church office or online at your Vanco.

Women's Bible Study

We are studying is Children of the Day, by Beth Moore which can be purchased through Amazon or your favorite bookstore. Our sessions are at 7:00 PM in the Library on April 21, May 19 & June 16. Contact Debra Gilroy or visit LOTI Groups.
