✠ EASTER SUNDAY ✠

APRIL 17, 2022

9:30 AM & 11:00 AM

“This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.” God has indeed raised from the dead the one who was put to death “by hanging him on a tree.” Alleluia! God allows Jesus to appear “to us who were chosen by God as witnesses” in holy baptism and invites us to eat and drink at the table of the risen Christ.

Alleluia!

☒ Gathering ☒

Following the call of God's Spirit, the community of faith gathers, welcoming one another and praying for God's mercy to fill the church and the world.

We invite you to use the prelude time to prepare your heart and mind for worship.

Call to Worship & Easter Proclamation

Spoken three times.

Christ is Risen!

He is risen indeed.

based on Psalm 118

Please stand as you are able.

This is the day that the Lord has made,

Let us be glad and rejoice in it.

The Lord is my strength and my song,

And he has become my salvation.

There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous.

“The right hand of the Lord has triumphed!”

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,

world without end. Amen.

Apostolic Greeting

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Everlasting God, in your endless love for the human race you sent our Lord Jesus Christ to take on our nature and to suffer death on the cross. Anthem

The Day of Resurrection

John of Damascus arr Evelyn R. Larter

*The day of resurrection! Earth, tell it out abroad;
the passover of gladness, the passover of God.
From death to life eternal, from earth unto the sky,
our Christ hath brought us over, with hymns of victory.*

*Our hearts be pure from evil, that we may see aright
the Lord in rays eternal of resurrection light;
and listening to his accents, may hear, so calm and plain,
his own "All hail!" and, hearing, may raise the victor strain.*

*Now let the heavens be joyful! Let earth the song begin!
Let the round world keep triumph, and all that is therein!
Let all things seen and unseen their notes in gladness blend,
for Christ the Lord hath risen, our joy that hath no end. Amen.*

✠ Word ✠

*The Word of God comes alive for the gathered community.
As God speaks to us in scriptures read, sung and preached.*

Reading

1 Corinthians

15:19-26

Paul describes the consequences of the resurrection, including the promise of new life in Christ to a world that has been in bondage to death.

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Paschal Verse

Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs bestowing life.

Gospel

Luke 24:1-12

Evidently expecting to find Jesus' corpse, some of his women followers go to the tomb with embalming spices. After a perplexing encounter with the empty tomb and angelic visitors, the women become the first to proclaim the amazing news of resurrection.

P: The Holy Gospel according to John the first chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

¹On the first day of the week, at early dawn, [the women] came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they went in, they did not find the body. ⁴While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. ⁵The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. ⁶Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, ⁷that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." ⁸Then they remembered his words, ⁹and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. ¹¹But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

P: The Gospel of Our Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Anthem

Come, You Faithful, Raise the Strain

John of Damascus/ John Ferguson

Come, you faithful, raise the strain Of triumphant gladness!

*'Tis the spring of souls today: Christ has burst his prison,
and from three days' sleep in death as a sun has risen;*

All the winter of our sins, Long and dark, is flying.

From his light, to whom is given Laud and praise undying.

*For today among the twelve Christ appeared, bestowing
His deep peace, which evermore Passes human knowing.*

*Neither could the gates of death Nor the tomb's dark portal
Nor the watchers nor the seal Hold him as a mortal.*

*Now the queen of seasons, bright With the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts Comes its joy to render;*

*Comes to gladden faithful hearts Which with true affection
Welcome in unwearied strain Jesus' resurrection!*

Lord's Prayer

☒ Meal ☒

We lift our hearts with praise and thanksgiving as the table is set, and we receive the bread and wine—the humble meal through which we are fed by the presence of Jesus the Christ and united as the body of Christ in the world.

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy...we praise your name and join their unending hymn...

C: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
