

LAKE OF THE ISLES LUTHERAN CHURCH

✠ REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY ✠

NOVEMBER 13, 2022

At the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, the guns fell silent on the Western Front, to bring to an end the First World War. Our nation has recalled that moment on this day through the decades. Today, we remember once again the lives sacrificed in the service of our country, and those traumatized and injured in battle. May we have such a devotion to justice and freedom that the heroism of all who fought may continue to be remembered in a nation of service and in a world of peace.

Who Wrote in Flanders Fields? John McCrae, Miko Maciaszek

*Inspired by Christ, living and growing in faith, we are a loving and open community of worship, witness,
and service in God's world.*

Welcome

Call to Worship

Psalm 98

Please stand as you are able.

✠ Gathering ✠

Following the call of God's Spirit, the community of faith gathers, welcoming one another and praying for God's mercy to fill the church and the world.

We invite you to use prelude time to prepare your heart and mind for worship.

The music today is generously supported by the Kuehn family in memory of the family of trumpet player Bruce Kuehn.

Trumpet Tune in D

(from Dioclesian Z.T. 697)

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

Sing a new song to the Lord, who has done marvelous things, whose right hand and holy arm have won the victory.

O Lord, you have made known your victory, you have revealed your righteousness in the sight of the nations.

You remember your steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Shout with joy to the Lord, all you lands;
lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.

Sing to the Lord with the harp, with the harp and the voice of song.

With trumpets and the sound of the horn shout with joy before the king, the Lord.

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it, the world and those who dwell therein.

Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord, who comes to judge the earth.

The Lord will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with equity.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit,

As it was in the beginning is now and will be forever. Amen.

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

ELW #632

1 O God, our help in a - ges past, our hope for years to come,
2 Un - der the shad - ow of your throne your saints have dwelt se - cure;
3 Be - fore the hills in or - der stood or earth re - ceived its frame,
4 A thou - sand a - ges in your sight are like an eve - ning gone, our shel - ter from the storm - y blast, and our e - ter - nal home:

suf - fi - cient is your arm a - lone, and our de - fense is sure.
from ev - er - last - ing you are God, to end - less years the same.
short as the watch that ends the night be - fore the ris - ing sun.

5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
bears all our years away;
we fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the op'ning day.

6 O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
still be our guard while troubles last and our eternal home!

Text: Isaac Watts, 1674–1748, alt.
Music: ST. ANNE, William Croft, 1678–1727

Apostolic Greeting

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without you nothing is strong, nothing is holy. Embrace us with your mercy, that with you as our ruler and guide, we may live through what is temporary without losing what is eternal, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Children's Message

Dismissal Song

☒ Word ☒

The Word of God comes alive for the gathered community, as God speaks to us in scriptures read, sung and preached.

St. Martin, St. Martin

*St Martin, St Martin, St Martin rode through wind and snow,
His horse, so fast with him, did go.
St Martin rode through weather rude. His cloak around him, warm and good.*

*St Martin, St Martin, in snow there sat a beggar near
With cold his eye so full with tears
“Please help me Martin in my need Or I shall die- my word do heed!”*

*St. Martin, St. Martin, St. Martin's eyes filled up with pain.
He pulled upon the horse's rein.
St. Martin took his sword so true, And cut his mantle right in two.*

*St. Martin, St. Martin, St. Martin gave one half away.
The beggar tried some thanks to say.
St. Martin rides away so fast, with half a cloak against the blast.*

☒ Rite of Remembrance ☒

In Flanders Fields

John McCrae 1915

*In Flanders fields, the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

Laying of the Wreaths

“Nimrod” from Enigma Variations

Edward Elgar (1857-1934)

As we remember in silence before God all those who fell in combat, let us commend their souls anew to his eternal mercy and let us pray and beseech him that he would grant us grace to serve him faithfully to the end of our life, to the honor and glory of his most holy name.

Colonel Tom Connors

They shall grow not grow old as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

We will remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,

We will remember them.

In the opening buds and in the rebirth of spring,

We will remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,

We will remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,

We will remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,

We will remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,

We will remember them.

When we are lost, and are sick of heart,

We will remember them.

When we have Joys we yearn to share,

We will remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, For they are now a part of us,

We will remember them.

Minute of Silence

Last Post

Prayer

Ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence; may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gospel

John 11: 20-27

Jesus promises Martha and that her brother Lazarus will rise from the dead.

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the eleventh chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. ²¹ Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. ²² But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him." ²³ Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." ²⁴ Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." ²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, ²⁶ and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" ²⁷ She said to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world."

P: The Gospel of Our Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

The Mansions of the Lord

Randall Wallace/Nick Glennie-Smith

*To fallen soldiers let us sing Where no rockets fly nor bullets wing
Our broken brothers let us bring To the mansions of the Lord
No more bleeding, no more fight No prayers pleading through the night
Just divine embrace, eternal light In the mansions of the lord
Where no mothers cry And no children weep
We shall stand and guard through the angels sleep
While through the ages safely keep The mansions of the Lord*

Following the sermon, we will take a moment of silence to reflect on today's gospel message.

Abide with Me

ELW #629

Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.*

A: Holy God, the earth is yours and everything in it, yet you have chosen to dwell among your creatures. Come among us now in these gifts of bread and wine, and strengthen us to be your body for the world through Jesus Christ our Lord.
C: Amen.

✠ Meal ✠

We lift our hearts with praise and thanksgiving as the table is set, and we receive the bread and wine—the humble meal through which we are fed by the presence of Jesus the Christ and united as the body of Christ in the world.

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Words of Institution

Lord's Prayer

C: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion
Please be seated.

P: Come to me all who are tired and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
The table is ready. All are welcome.

Please take either a glass of red wine or white grape juice from the full tray and place your emptied glass into the extra tray which is in front of the first pew.

O God Beyond All Praising

ELW #880

1 O God be-yond all prais-ing, we wor-ship you to-day
 2 The flow'r of earth-ly splen-dor in time must sure-ly die, 3 Then hear, O gra-cious Sav-ior, ac-cept the love we bring,

and sing the love a-maz-ing that songs can-not re-pay;
 its frag-ile bloom sur-ren-der to you, the Lord most high;
 that we who know your fa-vor may serve you as our King;

for we can on-ly won-der at ev-'ry gift you send,
 but hid-den from all na-ture the e-ter-nal seed is sown-and wheth-er our to-mor-rows be filled with good or ill, at bless-ings with-out num-ber and mer-cies with-out end:

 though small in mor-tal stat-ure, to heav-en's gar-den grown:
 we'll tri-umph through our sor-rows and rise to bless you still:

we lift our hearts be-fore you and wait up-on your word, for Christ, your gift from heav-en, from death has set us free,
 to mar-vel at your beau-ty and glo-ry in your ways,

we hon-or and a-dore you, our great and might-y Lord.
 and we through him are giv-en the fi-nal vic-to-ry.
 and make a joy-ful du-ty our sac-ri-fice of praise.
