Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, Viktor Vasnetsov, 1887

This Lenten season, Pastor Haug will be preaching on lessons drawn from the Book of Revelation and the art work these passages have inspired. This evening we meditate upon the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse featured in Revelation 6.

Lessons

Matthew 24:3-8

<sup>3</sup>When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?” <sup>4</sup>Jesus answered them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. <sup>5</sup>For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah!’ and they will lead many astray. <sup>6</sup>And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not alarmed, for this must take place, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup>For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places: <sup>8</sup>all this is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

Revelation 6: 1-7

Then I saw the Lamb break one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures call out, as with a voice of thunder, “Come!” <sup>2</sup>I looked, and there was a white horse! Its rider had a bow; a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering and to conquer. <sup>3</sup>When he broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature call out, “Come!” <sup>4</sup>And out came another horse, bright red; its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another, and he was given a great sword.

<sup>5</sup> When he broke the third seal, I heard the third living creature call out, “Come!” I looked, and there was a black horse! Its rider held a pair of scales in his hand, <sup>6</sup> and I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a day’s pay and three quarts of barley for a day’s pay, but do not damage the olive oil and the wine!”

<sup>7</sup> When he broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature call out, “Come!” <sup>8</sup>I looked, and there was a pale green horse! Its rider’s name was Death, and Hades followed with him; they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, famine, and pestilence and by the wild animals of the earth.
